Let's read

Tourists from all over the world want to travel to Tunisia because it is rich in history, culture and natural beauty.

They love to see its ancient ruins, like the Roman Amphitheatre at El Jam, which is one of the biggest amphitheatres in the world. They enjoy eating traditional food such as couscous, spicy harissa and shopping in its colourful markets. They also like going to its Mediterranean beaches where they can relax, lie in the sun and forget about the world. From its North to its South and from its East to its West, people in Tunisia are friendly and kind, they always welcome tourists with a smile.

Tourists don't miss the opportunity to visit this amazing country and they always take some photos with Tunisian people.
